TIMIS Company has been formed for the purpose of acquiring from the present proprietors, and developing, the business of the Luzon Sugar Retinery in Manila, as well as for the purchase of the Weinrich Patent rights in the Philippine Islands.

The Luzon Refinery has now been at work for the past two years, and has produced results which justify the promoters of this Company in undertaking the development of the enterprise to an extent which will meet the existing current demand for its produce. A contract has been made with an influential sugar clayer and dealer in Manila for the purchase of his valuable landed property, consisting of 263,625 square feet, with water frontage, and the extensive Godowns, Dwelling House and Officee thereon, all ready for immediate occupation, situated at Malabon, one of the BOMBAY, MADRAS, CALCUTTA, AND suburbs of Manila.

The Plant of the Old Refinery has been removed to Malabon, and the additional Machinery necessary to produce upwards of twenty thousand piculs of Refined Sugar per month is on its way from England. It is anticipated that the Refinery will be in full work on or about the First of HONGKONG, MONDAY, MARCH 27, 1882.

WE have heard lately from several quarters the statement that the depreciation in the market price of silver has been the immediate chuse of the increased prosperity of this Colony. To this cause are attributed not only the increase in commerce and trade, but blso the rise in the price of real estate. it seems to us that whatever real and substantial increase there has been in our trade and commerce with other nations, and whatever real rise has taken place in the value of landed property, is due almost entirely to the natural development of the Colony and to circumstances other than that of the depreciation of silver. The fact that we buy largely from countries where an exclusive monometallic or gold standard is maintained would not foud, we think, to develope our trade with those countries, but rather to somewhat cripple if by reason of the great loss incurred by exchange. If the position occupied by those who maintain that depreciation of the market raine of silver has been beneficial is sound, we should find that the other silver countries had also rejoiced in increased prosperity. India, however, as we know, was lately at the verge of bankruptov. owing partly to the foolish policy of the previous government, and was only redesired from her unfortunate position by the application of the financial abilities of the present Premier. That this threatened bankruptcy was partly the outcome of the suicidal Indian policy of the late administration in forcing on India costly and unnecessary ware, in pursuance of what they were pleased to term the High Imperial Policy of Great Britain, is modeniable; but it would seem to be the more direct result of the disastrous fall in the price of silver.

Buch increase is only imaginary, and by no means represents a real and substantial increase in value. This will be more readily seen if we convert the dollars. into sterling. Forty thousand dollars at 4s. 10d .- the price of exchange for some considerable time-would amount to £9,666 131. 4d., but at present, when the average value of the dollar does not exceed 3s. 8d., fifty thousand dollars would not realize more than £9166 13s. 4d. If, however, we take the dollar at 4s. 6d. (the price it was worth for a long time) the value of forty thousand dollars would be only £166 13s. 4d. less than fifty thousand dollars at the present rate of exchange. as that sum would be £9,000 exactly. So that it would seem that much of our apparent gain is substantial loss. ### THE CHINA REVIEW. PUBLISHED BI-MONTHLY TENTH YEAR.

HIS Review, which was intended to meet the wants of many students of Chineso caused by the discontinuance of Notes and Queries on China and Japan," has reached its Tenth Volume. The Review discusses those topics which are uppermost in the minds of students of the 'Far East' and about which every intelligent person connected with China or Japan is desirous of acquiring trustworthy information. It includes many interesting Notes and original Papers on the Arts, Sciences, Ethnology, Folklore, Geography, History, Literature, Mythology, Natural History, Antiquities, and Social Manners and Customs, etc., etc., of China, Japan, Mongolia, Tibot, and the Far East generally, Recently a new departure has been taken, and the Review now gives papers on Trade, Commerce, and Descriptive notes of Travel by well-known writers. It was thought that by extending the scope of the Review in this direction, the Magazine would be made more generally

The Review department receives special attention, and endeavours are made to present a careful and concise record of Literature on China, etc., and to give critiques embodying sketches of the most recent works on such topics. Authors and Publishers are requested to forward works to "Editor, China Review, care of China Mail Office.

The Notes and Queries are still continued and form an important means of obtaining from and diffusing among students knowledge on obscure points.

farther and greater facilities for the interchange of views and discussion of various

Original contributions in Chinese, Latin, or any of the Modern Languages are received. The papers are contributed by the Union Church, Elgin Street. members of the various Consular, the Imperial Customs, and Hongkong Services, and also by the Missionary bodies amongst whom a? gh dogree of Chinese scholarship is assiduously cultivated. Amongst the regular contributors are Drs. Chalmers, Eitel, Bretschneider, Hirth, and Hance, Professor Legge, and Messrs Balfour, Watters, Stent, Phillips, MacIntyre, Groot, Jamieson, Faber, Kopsch, Parker, Playfair, Giles, and Piton, -all well-known names, indicative of sound scholarship and thorough mastery of their subject.

The Subscription is fixed at $6.50 per annum, postage included - payable in advance. Orders for binding volumes will be promptly attended to; Address, "Manager, China Mail Office.

OPINIONS OF THE PRESS. "All our learned societies should subscribe to this scholarly and enterprising Review."-Northern Christian Advocate (U.S.) "The China Review * * * * has an ex-

This is rather a new departure for a publication which professes to be purely literary; but considering, the comparatively small circulation it enjoys at present among the commercial communities of China, we hall the innovation as likely to recommend the Review to the notice of those who take an interest in few matters beyond mercantile pursuits."-North-China Herald.

"The China Review for September-October fully maintains the high standard of excellence which characterises that publication, and altogether forms a very interesting and readable number. Meteorologists will find an interesting and and Snow) of Peking," showing the results Two Coolies, of observations made at the Imperial Rusmian Observatory at Peking, from 1841 to 1880. "A substantial and reliable Review which all students of China and the Chinese would do well to patronise."-Chrysanthemum. "The November-December number of the China Review contains less variety than Four Coolies, usual, but the few articles are very interes. Balfour contributes a paper of some length entitled "The Emperor Cheng, founder of the Chinese Em. pire," which will be read with genuine interest by students of Chinese history. A few short notices of New Books and a number of Notes and Queries, one of which "On Chinese Oaths in Western Borneo and Java" might appropriately have been placed under a separate heading, complete the number."-H.K. Daily Press. Trubner's Oriental Record contains the following notice of the China Review:---The present publication, judging by the number now before us, is intended to occupy a position, as regards China and the meighbouring countries, somewhat similar to that which has been filled in India by the Calcutta Review. The great degree of attention that has been bestowed of late years upon the investigation of Chinese literature. antiquities, and social developments, to say mothing of linguistic studies, has led to the accumulation of important stores of information, rendering some such channel of publicity as is now provided extremely desirable; and contributions of much interest fairly be looked for from the members of the foreign consular services, the Chinese Customs corps, and the missionary body. among whom a high degree of Chineso scholarship is now assiduously cultivated, and who are severally represented in the first number of the Review by papers highly creditable to their respective authors Some translations from Chinese novels and plays are marked by both accuracy and freshness of style; and an account of the career of the Chinese post-statemen of the eleventh century, Su Tung-p'o, by Mr. E. C. Bowrs, One Day, is not only historically valuable, but is also distinguished by its literary grace. Beside the East; which will be a useful feature of the Review, if carried out with punctuality and detail, we are glad to notice that "Notes" and "Queries" are destined to find a place in its pages also. It is to be hoped that this opening for contributions Chinese subjects may evoke a similar degree of literary real to that which was splayed during the lifetime of its prode cessor in the field, and that the China Review they receive the support necessary to maure continuance.
